Welcome Back

Welcome to Semester 2 at Lismore Public School. We welcome some new members to the LPS staff. Mrs Andrea Whitton will be teaching 3/4C while Mrs Carrall enjoys her long service leave. Mrs Emily McKenzie will be teaching the support class – hearing while the appointment process is completed. I am confident Emily and Andria will enjoy there time with us and our students will welcome them.

I will be taking long service leave from Weeks 2 to 4. During this time the assistant principals will be relieving in my role as follows: Week 2 Mrs McDonald, Week 3 Mrs Short and Week 4 Mrs Clark. I thank these assistant principals for taking on the role in my absence.

P&C

Our first P&C meeting for the term is this evening from 6.00pm in the staffroom. All interested parents and citizens are encouraged to join us. Thank you to Judy Faulks and her helpers who organised the new garden beds in the infants area. They will be a valued addition for our infants classes. Judy has volunteered to assist students with gardening.

NAIDOC

This week Lismore Public School is celebrating NAIDOC thanks to the work of Mrs McDonald and the Aboriginal Education Team. There are a range of activities including a visit from the Cabbage Tree Island Public School Dance Group.

BASKETBALL:

Well done to the boys and girls basketballers. The boys were narrowly defeated - in extra time while the girls won against Byron Bay.
